

In alignment with its corporate management policy, Carpineto Srl (Loc. Dudda, Greve in Chianti, SI) is committed to adopting production systems that respect the territory, ensuring that the optimal conditions for maintaining the balance of the natural ecosystem are not disrupted. This commitment has enabled the company to implement the ISO 14001 Environmental Management System and obtain certification in accordance with the VIVA Organization Specification promoted by the Ministry of the Environment and Energy Security (MASE) for wine processing and bottling activities at the Dudda site. A renewal audit is scheduled by the end of 2025.

Regarding the protection and safeguarding of the environment and its resources, Carpineto Srl aims to achieve the following objectives:

- Prevent negative environmental impacts;
- Protect the surrounding environment from potential degradation in line with its organizational and operational context;
- Communicate specific environmental protection activities to all stakeholders, including the local community

To pursue these objectives, the organization commits to:

- Achieve and maintain compliance with environmental regulations at the community, national, and local levels;
- Continuously plan and improve its environmental performance through detailed risk analysis, emerging issues, and hazards related to its activities;
- Ensure that all employees are aware of and act in accordance with the company's policies, procedures, and operational instructions;
- Ensure that the consumption of natural resources such as water, energy, and other raw materials used in production processes is reduced to sustainable and efficient levels, compatible with the organization's economic and technological resources;
- Ensure that products are designed and produced considering their entire life cycle;
- Promote accurate and truthful communication of the company's performance regarding the sustainability of wine production;
- Encourage the adoption of sustainable environmental practices in the supply chain and in the procurement of materials and services.

• This policy is communicated at all levels through posting within the company and to all stakeholders via publication on the company's website. All personnel are called upon to participate, according to their competencies, in achieving the corporate objectives set forth in this declaration.
